²Note that the minimum price increment for BIC trades in the MSCI ACWI NTR Index futures contract (symbol MMW) and the MSCI All Country World Ex-US NTR Index futures contract (symbol AWN) is already 0.001 index points, so the only change for these contracts is to the minimum price increment for other Block trades.

With these changes to these contracts, the minimum price increment for Block Trades (including BIC trades) will be 0.001 index points for all MSCI Index futures contracts. For the avoidance of doubt, all contracts that are not included in the table above already have a minimum price increment of 0.001 Index Points for all Block Trades (including spread blocks and BIC trades).
